

Service fee and fee codes for Saskatchewan Workers' Compensation Board primary physical therapist service providers

An intervention is an appropriate WCB-coded service provided to the worker by the treating practitioner during the acute, sub-acute or chronic phase of the injury. Interventions are limited to the phases of soft tissue healing (acute, sub-acute and chronic).

These fees are payable where the negative response process utilizing the initial report (PTI) and progress/discharge report (PTP) has been followed.

Where a prorated fee is indicated, the provider will bill using the major portion thereof method. At least half of the minimum time stated in the code must have elapsed for the additional unit to be billed.

For all time-based fee codes, the chart notes must include start and end times. The WCB retains the right to audit the records and invoices of care providers who have provided services to a WCB customer.

- There is a collective minimum of 20 minutes and up to 60 minutes per day as indicated in the fee codes identified by an asterisk.
- There is a collective weekly limit of 120 minutes per calendar week for workers working full hours (excluding treatment time) as indicated in the fee codes identified by an asterisk.
- There is a collective weekly limit of 180 minutes for workers not back to full hours (excluding treatment time) in the workplace, as indicated in the fee codes identified by an asterisk.

- 1 Initial assessment includes treatment provided during the initial appointment. This is a maximum of six units available and the number of units should reflect the complexity of the injury.
- 2 Initial and subsequent visits are inclusive of modalities and Theraband.
- 3 Services must be provided by a physical therapist. Delegation of conditioning or functional abilities evaluation to a Kinesiologist cannot be billed using this fee code but the duration of any delegated services is included in the daily and weekly time maximums.
- 4 For any group conditioning containing more than one WCB claimant, physical therapist will randomly assign the WCB invoice to one of the WCB claimants in the group.

Refer to the WCB practice standards for primary level physical therapists providers for a detailed description of the services listed on this fee schedule.
