Information on personal coverage

What is personal coverage?

Personal coverage is optional coverage for individuals not automatically covered under The Workers' Compensation Act, 2013 (the Act). When personal coverage is purchased, the applicant becomes a worker and is eligible for benefits under the Act. Earnings loss benefits will be based on the amount of coverage purchased by the applicant.

Personal coverage may be purchased for any amount between the minimum personal coverage amount ($27,040) and the maximum assessable wage rate ($96,945). The amount of coverage purchased should reflect actual employment earnings, since injury benefits will be based on this amount. For coverage amounts above the minimum, proof of earnings will be required in the event of an injury. The following documents will be accepted as proof of earnings:

- a. A Statement of Business or Professional Activities as submitted to the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA), or
- b. A declaration from a Chartered accountant, a Certified Management Accountant (CMA), or a Certified General Accountant (CGA) verifying the actual employment earnings.

In the absence of these documents, the WCB may accept an audited financial statement.

Why do we need your birthdate?

Your birthdate is used as an additional identifier when selecting personal coverage, as there are instances where two people have the same name.
